NONE AVAILABLE, Bowmanstown, PA

This charming and affordable twin home presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a property with renovation potential and solid bones. Located in Bowmanstown, this three-bedroom, one-bathroom townhouse offers spacious rooms throughout the first floor, enhanced by beautiful woodworking in the living room and dining room that adds character and warmth to these inviting spaces. The covered front porch provides a perfect spot to enjoy morning coffee or evening relaxation, while the 1-car detached carport ensures convenient off-street parking. The flat backyard space offers endless possibilities for outdoor activities, gardening, or entertaining. The property's sturdy structure provides a reliable foundation for your vision to come to life. While cosmetic renovations are needed, this presents the perfect canvas for personalizing your space and adding your own unique touches. The generous room sizes on the main level offer flexibility for various living arrangements and furniture configurations. Convenience is a key feature of this location, with easy access to major transportation routes including the Pennsylvania Turnpike and Route 209, making commutes and travel straightforward. The proximity to Palmerton Area High School adds appeal for families with school-age children. This townhouse represents an ideal investment for those who appreciate the satisfaction of transforming a property into their dream home.
